IF YOU ONLY HAVE TIME TO WALK FIVE MINUTES FROM YOUR APARTMENT, ORCHARD ROAD OFFERS A SNAPSHOT OF THE VIBRANT EXCITEMENT OF SINGAPORE. WORK. PLAY. SHOP. EAT. IT’S ALL HERE — RIGHT AT YOUR DOORSTEP

There is little that can’t be found in an area which seldom sleeps. Singapore’s retail haven of Orchard Road has designer shops rubbing shoulders with cool eateries and hidden bars. Peppered with sculptures by globally renowned artists, take to the wide boulevards where you will often glimpse the unexpected. From the conservation area of Emerald Hill to the glittering monolith of the Salt Sky Bar on the 56th floor of the ION shopping mall with its 360 degree view of almost the whole island, this is so much more than a 2.2 kilometer stretch of shops.

The tree-lined heritage shophouses of Emerald Hill are now home to cool bars and ever-changing eateries, while creative types can feast their eyes on the contemporary photography at the Lumas Art Gallery, where the furniture is as vibrant as the images. Like everywhere else in the Little Red Dot, food is a colorful kaleidoscope of cultures. Savor the best dumplings at Din Tai Fung in Paragon or Wisma Atria; or go back in time to a fifties diner experience at OverEasy. We promise you will never go hungry.
SECRET BARS, BARBERS IN ALLEYWAYS, MICHELIN-STARRED HAWKER FOOD — SINGAPORE HAS IT ALL. DIVE INTO THIS DYNAMIC CITY STATE WITH ITS COLORFUL AND ECLECTIC MIX OF OLD AND NEW, WHERE HERITAGE SITS NEXT TO HIGH RISE AND ONE DAY IS NEVER THE SAME AS THE NEXT

Away from the bright lights of Orchard Road, the city-state has some intriguing discoveries. Forget new malls and global chains, get to the heart of the city where hipster meets heritage and a colorful mix of cultures dances to a different, more authentic beat. Food is at the very soul of Singapore’s vibrancy; flit from one cuisine to another and savor the eclectic.

1. Head to Arab Street and Haji Lane for cool boutiques, hidden bars and musicians playing in the alleyways. At Tiong Bahru you will find heritage houses hosting laid-back coffee shops (the salted caramel Danish is a must at Tiong Bahru Bakery) and modern-day barbers.

2. At night, Keong Saik Road comes alive, with a host of bars, and eateries. Try the cocktails at The Library (you’ll find the password on Facebook or Twitter) or the laidback vibe of Caribbean rum bar Limehouse. And don’t forget the burgers at Potato Head Folk. From here it’s a few minutes walk to Ann Siang Hill, another vibrant area of cool nightlife. Try the boutique cinema The Screening Room or head to Amoy Street for some great bars — no less than seven in this one street. If you start early don’t forget arguably the best Vietnamese food in the area at Pho 99.
